NOTE:

Upon payment of the current fee to purchase a niche in the Maitland City Council's Columbarium, an Interment Right will be issued to the person nominated as the Holder. This Interment Right gives that person, or any other person they nominate, the right to be interred in that niche.

Should the deceased be the Holder, then the Interment Right becomes part of his or her estate, to be administered by his or her Executor. If there is no Executor, then the Next of Kin who is the "major beneficiary" may authorise the opening of the grave for the interment of the deceased. Only the Holder of the Interment Right can authorise an interment into the niche.

The Interment Right can be transferred to another person while ever the niche is vacant. This is not legally complete until any transfer is registered in Maitland City Council's Cemetery Register. It is necessary to supply relevant information such as a will, statutory declaration or evidence of identity to transfer the ownership of a niche.
